

GRADUATION SPEAKER

*WHERE THERE IS A WILL THERE'S A
WAY. WHERE THERE IS NO WILL THERE'S AN EXCUSE!*

Bio:

Dr. Basden is an active educator who has taught in the public schools, and on the tertiary level in the Bahamas and America for twenty-five years. His doctoral dissertation was on The Socialization of African American High School Males and its impact on Their Academic Achievement

Are you looking for a dynamic, motivational informational and motivating speaker?

Are you hoping to inspire, to encourage, to propel your students exuberantly into the “real world”? Are you ready for them to cut the umbilical cord, to fly from the nest of formal school and take the real world plunge?

Are you hoping to send them off, grounded in the past, realistic about the present and hopeful about their future? Then allow me the privilege to be their graduation speaker. Don't leave this auspicious, once in a lifetime, culminating event to chance.

I guarantee you that they will walk away with nuggets of truth and wisdom that they will remember for the rest of their lives.
